

Summer Internship (2022)

June 01-15, 2022

Product Overview

Let's take a look at some of the precursors. The closest thing that comes close to our startup is a MOOC, from a social standpoint the social platforms today are the nearest. Helping students/teachers improve their academic, financial, and career outcomes is the goal of the Qramer platform. We are looking for graphic designers and software developers.

Software developer intern

developers are responsible for designing computer or mobile applications. The nature of their work is largely focused on developing web/mobile applications. This involves understanding user needs, developing software solutions, monitoring performance and modifying programs as needed.

Stack

Backend: node js , typescript , javascript , expressJs, mongodb

Frontend : nextJs , reactJs,React Native, typescript, javascript, html, css.

Graphic designer intern

Graphic designers create visual concepts to communicate information from UX to UI. They will create everything from posters and billboards to packaging and icons, choosing colors and developing logos and marketing materials. They will also use elements such as color, typography, images and more to convey ideas to an audience.

They must have a strong knowledge of using certain tools such as Adobe Photoshop, Adobe Illustrator or figma...etc. (previous experience will be helpful)

Details

We want to attract the attention of future developers (software engineering students) or graphic designers. We are looking for interns for periods ranging from two months to three months.

We have a great dedicated development team that gets things done and delivers digital products regarding the requirements, We also adopt the scrum methodology.. We offer Professional Certificate Programs on all the above mentioned technologies that can help interns clarify their path.

interns can work remotely and we will support and guide them during their internships from report to presentation.

Please note that this is not a paid internship.
